

January 28, 2009

Action Alert! The national economic stimulus bill proposes to pay 65% of a family's health insurance premiums for a year if the family breadwinner loses his or her job. But domestic partners can find their insurance cut off completely when their partners' jobs end. Learn more and send an urgent letter to Congress now! Unmarried families deserve continuing health coverage too!