

June 16, 2009

President Obama is expected to extend health and other benefits to same-sex partners of federal employees. Nice, but not enough! AtMP believes that access to health care shouldn't depend on being married or partnered, and certainly should not depend on the sex of your partner. Speak up for the unmarried majority - tell President Obama that ALL partners deserve health care!